An All-American Club

Santa Clara Valley Gem and Mineral Society

San Jose, California

Randy says...

Hello, Fellow Rockhounds,

The November 24th meeting will be elections and Silent Auction. Please bring items to donate for the auction. It is always a fun time with some spirited bidding for some of the items. Proceeds go to the club general fund to offset the costs associated with running the club.

The Board has reserved the Cabana Club for our annual Installation Dinner on December 1st. We are having it catered by Willow Street. The cost will be $10 per adult, $5 for children under 12. The food will be very good and you can't beat the price. Please send in your reservation to Marc Mullaney so we can order the proper amount of food.

The deadline for reservations is the November meeting. We will be having a Toys for Tots collection as we have in past years. Please bring an unwrapped gift per person to donate. Let me or Marc Mullaney know if you would like to help decorate the Cabana Club.

The nomination committee has given their report on the candidates for the upcoming election. The election will be held at our November general meeting. Currently there are openings for President and Secretary.

The new President will be asking for people to serve on the committees for the next year. If you would like to chair a committee, please send me an E-mail or call to let me know what you would like to do. I will forward this information to the incoming President. There are several positions open. The biggest one will be Show Chairman for 2011.

We will be hosting the spring meeting of North Bay Field Trips. The date will be March 13th here at the Cabana Club. This would be a great opportunity for you to learn about upcoming trips. Each club is supposed to host at least one field trip each year. If there is somewhere you would like to go, contact Dean Welder or me and we will see what we can do to set it up.

Bits and Pieces

Smithies

Mike Perry and Pat Speece

Our November class will learn several new processes.

We've had four lab nights so far where members come and work on projects, ask questions, or just check us out. We enjoy these. If that sounds good to you, come join us.

Our next lab nights are November 23, and 31, 7 to 10 pm. Pat.speece@sbcglobal.net or 266-4327.

Stringers

Pat Speece

The chief strings are on an extended vacation. However, if you need help with anything, let me know and we can probably work something out.

Mineraleers

Chuck Boblenz

The Mineraleers met at the Paone residence on a very rainy night last month. Four members attended, including the host and hostess and all enjoyed seeing a flat of Franklin, New Jersey minerals that Frank Monez had collected a number of years ago. Mike's black lights were very active throughout the event.

Gail Matthews was unable to attend due to her health, but I substituted in her place in describing how Fluorescence takes place.

Mike and Nancy Paone shared a large collection of jewelry from Bali that they have acquired. Many exquisite pieces they showed received many ooh's and ahh's.

Next months meeting is Nov. 10, 2009 at the Gissler home. The topic is Marble led by Bill Gissler.

So dust off those pieces of Marble that you may have around and plan now to attend this meeting.

Please RSVP to Bill or Sharon at (408) 241-0477. Hope to see you there.

Smile!

You might be a rockhound if you think the primary function of road cuts is serving as tourist attractions. :)

Cutaways and Carvers

John Eichhorn

Meet at John Eichhorn's house

November 14th, 1pm to 4pm

Let John know you are coming.

Pitfalls of rock tumbling

Rocktumblinghobby.com

1. NEVER pour the waste product from your barrels down the sink - it sets rock-hard even under water and will rapidly cause a blockage in your pipework. Find somewhere else to pour it - on the garden or I prefer to use a large outdoor water barrel - pouring the water out and then taking the slurry to the tip from time to time.

2. NEVER use a barrel which has had grit in it for the final polish phase - always ensure that you have one barrel especially designated for this purpose only.

3. NEVER allow any grit to contaminate any machinery - your washing machine, your tumbler, your dishwasher etc - GRIT DESTROYS ALL MACHINES QUICKLY AND EFFICIENTLY.

4. NEVER leave your barrels for more than 2 days without checking them - always keep an eye on them so that in the event of a problem - such as a lid popping off - you can be around to sort it out quickly.

5. ALWAYS follow the manufacturer's instructions for oiling the bearings on your tumbler, do not ignore this or you will quickly find yourself with a siezed up bearing - remember these machines need to run 24/7 without a rest!!

6. ALWAYS use separate spoons/sieves/barrels for each type of grit - you must always avoid cross contamination of grits.

7. ALWAYS protect your machines from damp air conditions and wet surfaces for obvious safety reasons.

8. ALWAYS pay close attention to the washing stages - there is no point in attempting to polish stones if cross barrel contamination is occurring - they will simply never shine. ★

Let's see a show!

Fossils of tiny dinosaur on first public display

Reuters By Dan Whitcomb and Bob Mezan – Thu Oct 22, 10:40 am ET

LOS ANGELES (Reuters) – Fossils from the smallest dinosaur found in North America, a fleet-footed species only 28 inches long and weighing less than a rabbit, have gone on public display for the first time at a Los Angeles museum. The bones were discovered in western Colorado in the late 1970s but only recently identified and named Fruitadens haagarorum by an international team of scientists.

The fossils represent the skulls, vertebrae, arms and legs of four individual dinosaurs and are housed at the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County, which put them on display.

"We're really testing the limits of body size among dinosaurs," Luis Chiappe, director of the museum's Dinosaur Institute, told Reuters in an interview.

"Here's an animal that is estimated to have weighed about two pounds (0.91 kg) when it was full grown," he said. "So this is a really tiny dinosaur. It is the smallest known dinosaur from North America and one of the smallest dinosaurs ever."

Scientists say Fruitadens haagarorum lived about 150 million years ago, during the Late Jurassic period, probably darting between the legs of much larger dinosaurs such as Brachiosaurus, Allosaurus and Torvosaurus.

Unusual details in the skull, including a canine-like tooth at the front of the lower jaw and leaf-shaped teeth in the cheek region, along with the small body size, suggests it ate both plants and animals.

That would make Fruitadens haagarorum one of the latest surviving members of a group of dinosaurs called heterodontosaurids.

How to bend a tube

Ganoksin.com

Many tools sold in model/hobby stores can be used for jewelry making. During a recent visit to a hobby shop, I found tube bending coils, which model makers use to build models that require bent tubing. Jewelry makers will find these coils handy when bending tubing for projects.

Bending coils are available in different sizes, making it possible to bend tubing without any major distortions. When selecting a coil, pick one that fits the tube snugly.

Insert the tube into the coil and leave a small amount of the tube sticking out. This will allow you to grab the tube to remove it from the coil after bending.

Gently bend the coil to the desired curve. As the coil is bent, the tube inside will bend as well. If the tube fits snugly inside the coil, it will not deform during bending. Use a pair of pliers to remove the tube from the coil. It may be necessary to lightly sand the surface of the tube to remove any marks left behind from the bending process.

Tubes can be bent in different directions using these coils.
